MR. WATTS—"Mrs. Briggs and her husband seem to be such a happy pair." Mrs. Potts—"Yes, they are so considerate of each other. She tells me that they had been married three years before either one knew that they were both fond of onions."—Indianapolis Journal.

TERSE OBSERVATIONS.

It never pays to run through a briar patch.

SOMETIMES a good well has a very poor pump.

It is the cowardly dog that is always showing his teeth.

A dog without teeth very often does the most barking.

You can never break a cow of kicking by kicking back again.

This love that never speaks until it does it on a gravestone doesn't mean much.

It is seldom that a woman gets religion enough to love people who do not praise her baby.

Talk on Cattle.

C. M. Bruce is in town. His cattle company have made arrangements to ship 3,000 steers to Bakersfield, California, where they will be fattened. Mr. Bruce states that the Southern Pacific company have made them a rate that is fair and way below anything yet done by that company on cattle shipments. He also states that the S. P. Co. express a desire to handle Arizona cattle and will make low rates in order to do so. The Barbacomari company will begin shipping about Oct. 15th. In speaking of eastern shipments Mr. Bruce says that he has had many letters recently from Kansas, offering pasturage at $2 per head per year, and the best grass ever seen in that state. He maintains that there is no excuse for a man to lose his cattle when he can ship them at a very low rate and get plenty of money advanced on them at the other end at 8 per cent interest, to pay freight and pasturage until they are marketable.

Consumption cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, and a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using.
